Measure & Improve
Team Engagement

Discover ideas. Recognize achievements. Surface issues. Tune in to morale.

Problem: Teams Aren't Engaged

According to Gallup research, 70% of team members aren't engaged. This costs teams like yours money in lost productivity, absenteeism and turnover.

Solution: Boost Engagement

With Sensient, you can create a community where members easily share their feedback on culture, give kudos to their colleagues, and view tips on workplace happiness.

Is Sensient difficult?

No! It only takes a few minutes to setup and few minutes per period for the team survey. Everything is automated with real-time data.

How do you help managers?

With our sentiment analysis technology, managers can easily gauge the overall pulse of the team. Team leaders can also respond to member questions and concerns.

How is Sensient different?

Unlike consultants and other survey platforms, we actively engage team members and leverage sentiment analysis to extract insights.

How do I get started?

How it Works

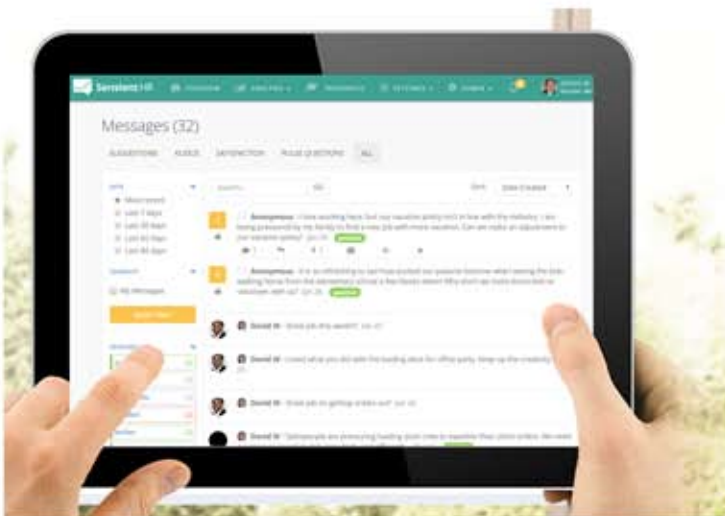

Quick & Easy

Teammates receive an emailed invite to a quick pulse survey each week. No passwords or logins and survey takes less than 2 minutes.

Sentiment Analysis

Use sentiment analysis to dissect text feedback and bring forth the most pressing feedback that your team members are leaving.

Analyze Real-Time Data

Find out in real-time how your team is feeling as a whole and by sub-population within the team.

Team Engagement Benefits

Increase Your Retention

Studies have indicated over 50% of Americans self-report leaving their job because of issues with company culture or leadership. Catch these issues before they impact your team!

Boost Your Productivity

Empower your team by satisfying their workplace needs so they can focus their mental energy on creating their best work.

Build a Culture of Excellence

An engaged team member is more than willing to go the extra mile for their colleagues, whether that is finding an innovative solution for a client need or helping out a teammate.

Foster Innovation

By fostering a nurturing and engaged team, you can create a culture that brings forth innovative ideas to set your team apart.

Facilitate Communications

Quickly understand what your team members are most concerned about by using our sentiment analysis technology.

Bring Out the Best in Your Team

Meet your deadlines and exceed expectations by building a healthier team culture. Use Sensient to facilitate the difficult conversations that will help you and your team flourish!
